

LOUISIANA POULTRY FEDERATION

"Working for a Greater Poultry Industry in Louisiana"

P.O. Box 68
Arcadia, LA 71001

August 8, 2026

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Louisiana Poultry Federation is a non-profit organization comprised of poultry producers, processors, allied industry representatives, and other stakeholders dedicated to supporting and promoting Louisiana's poultry industry. Each year, the Federation hosts its Annual Convention, bringing together members from across the state for fellowship, networking, and industry recognition.

The 2026 Louisiana Poultry Federation Annual Convention will provide an opportunity for industry professionals, producers, company representatives, and their families to gather and celebrate the accomplishments and contributions of Louisiana's poultry industry. Attendees will enjoy recreational activities, networking opportunities, and events designed to strengthen relationships among those who work every day to support Louisiana's largest animal agricultural industry.

Because the Annual Convention is supported through sponsorships and donations, we respectfully ask that you consider supporting this event. Sponsorships help fund convention activities and allow the Louisiana Poultry Federation to continue its mission of promoting, advocating, and strengthening Louisiana's poultry industry. As always, sponsors will be recognized during the convention, providing visibility and appreciation for those who generously support our organization and its programs.

Your contribution to the Louisiana Poultry Federation helps ensure that we can continue bringing our industry together, building relationships among members, and celebrating the individuals and companies that make Louisiana poultry a success.

Please make checks payable to Louisiana Poultry Federation and mail them to:
